Subject: Response to Letter CP59
"You Didn't File a Form 1040 Tax Return"
Tax Year: 2011

Dear Anonymous IRS Employee:

I recently received a computer-generated letter "CP59" for tax year 2011. Letter CP59 has as its heading: "You Didn't File a Form 1040 Tax Return"

In that letter, you stated "If you are required to file a tax return for 2011, please do so immediately."

Please consider this my timely response to the December 10th letter.

I have been involved in disputes with the IRS for several years now. More than once, I have given numerous IRS employees extensive documentation to support my position that I have no federal income tax liability, and, therefore, am not required to file a tax return. But they have all chosen to ignore it. Throughout this entire ordeal, the silence and evasion exhibited by IRS employees clearly demonstrates a consistent pattern of bad faith dealing, conspiracy and fraud.

But, you can change all of that by answering these questions:

1. What section of the U.S. Code (Title/Subtitle/Chapter/Subchapter/Part) requires me to file an income tax return?
2. In what taxable activity am I engaged that makes me liable for the income tax?
3. Should you fail to provide the answers to Questions 1 and 2 - What section of the U.S. Code gives you the authority to take ANY action against me?

These are all reasonable questions to which any American citizen deserves an answer, especially when faced with the prospect of having his property confiscated by liens and levies, and his freedom taken away by arrest and imprisonment.

Until I receive answers to those questions, I am left with this response to your letter:

- 1. I deny that I am required to file a tax return for calendar year 2011, or any other calendar year.
- 2. I deny that I have a federal income tax liability for calendar year 2011, or any other calendar year.
- 3. I do not agree to any person's filing or signing Form 1040, 1040A or any other version of the Form 1040 on my behalf and HEREBY OBJECT TO SUCH ACT.

To every IRS employee who touches this case, please consider yourself put on NOTICE that every letter, email, telephone record and document you produce will become evidence in a court of law and you will be deposed to testify under oath and under the threat of perjury as to your actions.

Proceed with caution.

Respectfully submitted,
