Subject: Response to Letter 1862 (Rev. 7-2008)
“We Have Not Received Your Federal Income Tax Return”
“You Need to File Your Return”
Calendar Year: 2010

Dear Mr./Ms. Carver:

I recently received a “Letter 1862 (Rev. 7-2008)” from you for the calendar year 2010. Letter 1862 has as its heading: “We Have Not Received Your Federal Income Tax Return ~ You Need to File Your Return” .

In that letter, you allege that I have a federal income tax liability of $44,361.06, as summarized below:

Description	2009
Alleged Tax Due	$ 30,063.00
Alleged Penalties	11,467.43
Alleged Interest	2,830.63
Alleged Amount	$ 44,361.06

The letter was dated July 8, 2013 and indicated that I had 30 days to respond, which would make August 7, 2013 the deadline for doing so.

Please consider this my timely response to the July 8th letter.

Mr./Ms. Carver, I'm afraid we have a serious disagreement. You claim that I have a federal income tax liability for the calendar year 2010, and I claim that I don't.

I have been involved in tax liability disputes with the IRS for several years now. More than once, I have given numerous IRS employees extensive documentation to support my position that I have no federal income tax liability, but they have all chosen to ignore it. Throughout this entire ordeal, the silence and evasion exhibited by IRS employees clearly demonstrates a consistent pattern of bad faith dealing.

But, you can change all of that by answering these questions:

- 1. What section of the U.S. Code (Title/Subtitle/Chapter/Subchapter/Part) requires me to file an income tax return?
- 2. In what taxable activity am I engaged that makes me liable for the income tax?
- 3. Should you fail to provide the answers to Questions 1 and 2 - What section of the U.S. Code gives you the authority to take ANY action against me?

These are all reasonable questions to which any American citizen deserves an answer, especially when faced with the prospect of having his property confiscated by liens and levies, and his freedom taken away by arrest and imprisonment.

Until I receive answers to those questions, I am left with this response to your letter:

- 1. I deny that I have a federal income tax liability for calendar year 2010, or any other calendar year.
- 2. I do not agree to any person's filing or signing Form 1040, 1040A or any other version of the Form 1040 on my behalf and HEREBY OBJECT TO SUCH ACT.

Mr./Ms. Carver, consider yourself put on NOTICE that every letter, email, telephone record and document you produce will become evidence in a court of law and you, along with every other IRS employee who touches this case, will be deposed to testify under oath and under the threat of perjury as to your actions.

To date, I have extensive correspondence containing irrefutable evidence of multiple counts of provable mail fraud, wire fraud, threats, extortion, conversion, false claims, and conspiracy. All of these are very serious felonies punishable by long prison sentences and very large fines.

Proceed with caution.

Respectfully submitted,
