Subject: Response to Letter 3219 (SC/CG) Notice of Deficiency
Year: 2010

Dear Mr. Banowsky:

I received a "3219 (SC/CG)" computer-generated letter from you for calendar year 2010. Letter 3129 (SC/CG) is commonly known as a "Notice of Deficiency".

In that letter, you allege that I have a federal income tax liability of $30,063.00.

The letter was dated September 9, 2013 and indicated that I had 90 days to petition the Tax Court, which would make December 9, 2013 the deadline for doing so.

Please consider this letter my timely response to the September 9th letter.

I regret to inform you that I will not be filing a petition with the Tax Court. I did so for calendar year 2002 and found the judge to be hostile and biased. I came away from that experience with the understanding that Tax Court is not the place for any American to seek justice.

I also will not sign Form 5564 – "Notice of Deficiency – Waiver". I expressly DO NOT CONSENT to the assessment and collection of the alleged tax deficiency set forth in your letter.

Mr. Banowsky, I'm afraid we have a serious disagreement. You claim that I have a federal income tax liability for calendar year 2010, and I claim that I don't.

I have been involved in disputes with the IRS for a number of years now. More than once, I have given numerous IRS employees extensive documentation to support my position that I have no federal income tax liability, but they have all chosen to ignore it. Throughout this entire ordeal, the silence and evasion exhibited by IRS employees clearly demonstrates a consistent pattern of bad faith dealing.

But, you can change all of that by answering these three questions:

- 1. What section of the U.S. Code (Title/Subtitle/Chapter/Subchapter/Part) requires me to file an income tax return?

- 2. In what taxable activity am I engaged that makes me liable for the income tax?
- 3. Should you fail to provide the answers to Questions 1 and 2 - What section of the U.S. Code gives you the authority to take ANY action against me?

These are reasonable questions to which any American citizen deserves an answer, especially when faced with the prospect of having his property confiscated by liens and levies, and his freedom taken away by arrest and imprisonment.

Until I receive answers to those questions, I am left with this response to your letter:

- 1. I deny that I am required to file a tax return for calendar year 2010, or any other calendar year.
- 2. I deny that I have a federal income tax liability for calendar year 2010, or any other calendar year.
- 3. I do not consent to any person preparing, filing, or signing Form 1040, 1040A, or any other version of the Form 1040 on my behalf and HEREBY OBJECT TO SUCH ACT.

To you, and every IRS employee who touches this case, please consider yourself put on NOTICE that every letter, email, telephone record and document you produce will become evidence in a court of law and you will be deposed to testify under oath and under the threat of perjury as to your actions.

To date, I have extensive correspondence containing irrefutable evidence of multiple counts of provable mail fraud, wire fraud, threats, extortion, conversion, false claims, and conspiracy. All of these are very serious felonies punishable by long prison sentences and very large fines.

Proceed with caution, Mr. Banowsky.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert A. McNeil
